To the Editor of the Tribune:

DEAR Sin-In the womey article of your paper this morning, the Clinton Bank is spoken of as "a broken in stitution." I sministructed, unless the error is corrected in your next paper, so that the epithet there applied to the institution may appear to have been false, to commence a suit against you. The Bank in question is fully able and ready to meet all its legal liabilities.

Your obedient servant. EDMUND TERRY, Attorney, &c. No. 27 Wall st.

We have the pleasure of being acquained with Mr.

We have the pleasure of being acquainted with Ma Terry. He is a gentleman in whose statements on au subject we place the fullest confidence. We understanhis note as above that he endorses the Bank him-eli Bank is not broke. We are certainly rejoiced to hen it now is, " able and ready to meet all its legal liabilities. were the fact that the bills of the Bank, although issued t this City, were refused at the Post Office, that the Bank at which we keep our account refused to take them on depo site, and that the stock of the Institution had been to ou nowledge occasionally offered in the market in exchang or Wild Cats-we mean wild lands to Pennsylvanin! Moreover we had some knowledge of the men who got us this institution, and we are quite free to say that a more uscally suspicious, and poverty-stricken set of bankers can some of the prime movers were, we would hardly mow where to find this side of Taxas. Levis, Newcomb he Herkimer County clerk, and Redfield were perfechildren compared with them. We were informed on Sat uday, however, that these balloon financiars, these me my sharks, were long since turned out, and that the prestatofficers are men of business and respectability.
